Move, Play & Grow with Winter Recreation Programs

Gaithersburg, MD – (December 7, 2020) Move, play and grow with winter recreation programs. From in-person socially distanced fitness classes to online activities that allow you to workout, dance and learn from the comfort of your own home, we've got things to do all winter long while we all stay safe. Registration is now open for City of Gaithersburg residents and open registration begins on Wednesday, December 9. Explore our winter offerings and register online here.

With programs for preschoolers, youth, teens, and adults, you'll discover an array of fitness, dance, and special interest classes. Virtual offerings include fitness, youth ballet, group music, dog grooming, and healthy eating seminars. Select in-person activities are also available and are subject to change due to the continuing public health crises.

While we've temporarily suspended our printed Go! Gaithersburg Guide as situations are constantly changing, you can explore all of our winter events and activities on our seasonal programming webpage online here.
